DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after allowance or after an Office action under Ex Parte Quayle, 25 USPQ 74, 453 O.G. 213 (Comm'r Pat. 1935). Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, prosecution in this application has been reopened pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 12/12/07 has been entered.

Information Disclosure Statement

2. The IDS submitted on 1/25/07 and 12/12/07 have been considered. An initial copy is enclosed.

3. After review of the IDS, the prior art listed does not disclose either singly or in combination all limitations of independent claim 2. In particular, Narita et al. discloses using board level simulation to verify the interface logic between R4400s and multiple LSIs, wherein the JPO Office action (mailing date: November 21, 2006) further discusses Narita to disclose distributing an encrypted model bank and loading the model bank in XP; Kojima discloses, inter alia, utilizing three methods by a core vendor to protect intellectual property rights, including encryption, digital watermarking and taking legal action. However, these two prior art do not disclose either singly or together permuting the outputs of a dummy circuit and an original circuit, wherein the dummy circuit and original circuit have the same number of inputs and outputs, and using a key signal applied to a selector, wherein the selector is responsive to a selection signal for selecting a number of signals corresponding to the number of outputs of the original circuit from an output of the permutation circuit. The remaining prior art listed in the submitted IDS do not remedy the deficiencies of Narita and Kojima.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 2-7 are allowed.
5. Examiner's reasons for allowance for claims 2-7 are disclosed on paragraph 5 in the Final Office action mailed on July 8, 2005.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
